When a student (or his/her parents or spouse) has had a decrease in 2016 income from the 2015 tax year due to exceptional financial circumstances, the Financial Aid Office MAY base the student's financial aid on an estimate of the parent(s) or student and spouse's 2016 income rather than the prior year's (2015) income. "Exceptional circumstances" are circumstances such as a change in employment or household income.
